

Gospel Artist Calvin Mincey's New Album 'All About Jesus' Is Set to Inspire Christian Music Lovers

Wilmington, Aug 20, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - It says the closer we get to Jesus, the happier and stronger we become in overcoming every situation in life and its ordeals. Sometimes in life, we lack the right kind of encouragement and motivation to push us forward. But with the beautiful music pieces of Calvin Mincey, every aspect of life seems just fine and everything falls into the right place. The Delaware based multi-versatile musician cum owner of Mincey's Music Notes LLC. This amazing personality is all set with the release of his new album “All About Jesus” that is going to hit the music market on 23rd August of this year. Although Calvin has already pleased gospel music lovers with his previous project, “Seasons”, his first album, “All About Jesus” is his second album but his first solo project.

Calvin Mincey has been extremely enthusiastic towards music since his childhood. He loved to spend time in church and really had a desire to become a musician. The beautiful melodies of holiday music, carols, and spiritual pieces have had a deep influence on his life. He has recreated the classic Christmas carols like “Joy to the World”, “Angels We Have Heard On High”, “The First Noel” and a few others that he recorded especially for Christmas and New Year which is available on iTunes. His songs are his humble approach to deliver his respect and the belief he has in Jesus. To express his feelings with a more firm approach, this sophomore project builds on his creativity and is absolutely awesome! His album “All About Jesus” will soon be out for purchase & streaming in all major digital media outlets.

Calvin Mincey has a proven track record in music with a BA in music education and MA in Curriculum & Instruction. He is a fine worship musician, producer, arranger, and music teacher; ministering up and down the south-east coast and West Virginia many years.
