

Keys Lifestyle Announces Exciting New Retirement Real Estate Opportunities

Keys Lifestyle is a Florida Real Estate group offering exclusive opportunities for American veterans. The company is offering modern real estate in year-round warm climate with an array of perks.

Key West, Aug 28, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Many real estate experts and magazines have dubbed Key West as the most suitable place for American retirees and veterans to buy a house. With its warm climate and affordable high-end properties, Key West's local culture serves as a hub for activities such as boating, fishing and water sports. Keys Lifestyle is a Florida Real Estate group with many exclusive listings in varying prices. The company has now announced new listings and offers are already being made.

One of the most popular listings on the Keys Lifestyle website is the 6800Maloney, a modern 1542 square foot, 3 bedroom and 2.5 bath home with many perks and features. With vaulted ceilings and skylights, the house boasts tranquil surroundings and private docks for outdoor activities. A spokesperson for Keys Lifestyle made an official press statement to discuss the company's work and to announce the new listings.

"Here at Keys Lifestyle, we are an extremely customer oriented company with a focus on extreme value for money. We specialize in offering high-end properties at exclusive rates. Our properties can be used as a seasonal retreat or a permanent residence after retirement. The local community offers many exciting events, along with boating, fishing and many more outdoor activities," stated the spokesperson.

He further added “With a comfortably warm climate all year round, our listings feature custom manufactured homes with energy efficient systems. With low maintenance fees and Grade-A materials, our homes can be the most perfect family residence, seasonal retreat or retirement residence.”
