

Lil' Fannypack Has Come Up With Infectious and Impeccable Hip Hop & Rap Beats

Lil' Fannypack showcases his tremendous skills and talents through his exotic hip hop and rap music. His tracks are already trending and streaming on the gala.

Chicago, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Aspiring artist Lil' Fannypack has brought for the music lovers a moving selection of music tracks. This incredibly talented artist from Tennessee, United States seeks to be known for his exclusive array of tracks. He is also a kick boxer and also studies various kinds of martial arts. He deals with a wide range of hip hop and rap music genre. If you are craving for some unique varieties of music, then you must give this artist a try. His hip hop and rap music is meant to appeal to the fans through the help of irony, humour and connections.

This tremendously talented artist brings a collection of down-tempo and easy-going hip hop and rap music with a low-key ambience and massively independent aura which drive off the whole thing in a very relatable way. The track 'Weed, Lean, and Fornication \("Racks" Prod: Kid Ocean\)' opens the project up with a simple chord progression and rhythm that quickly captivates the audiences. The vocal performance has a quite unusual touch, particularly for modern rap music. The organic sounds and the use of instrumentation contrast intensely with the delicacy of the surrounding soundscape.

The next track 'Packin' the Pen Pt. 1 Prod.RikeLuxxBeads' lets you adjust very quickly to it and the lyricism of the whole track stays true to the underlying thoughts and sentiments of the overall story-line. As far as performance is concerned, the track seems to follow a stream of consciousness, offering idea after idea into the mix and speeding up the whole process notably towards the end. The overall vibe of the two tracks lean more towards synth-driven, lighter and dream-like direction. A certain sense of character and individuality is maintained in this artist's musicality. The repetitive hook and snares keep you coming back for more.
