

Austin Songwriter Robert B+ Thinks His Song Can Change the World.

Comedy marching song “Donald Trumps Golden Toilet” gets 50,000 views in ten days.

DONALD TRUMP'S GOLDEN TOILET

Sgt. Rump and the Victory Marchers

Austin, Sep 20, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - With a title like “Donald Trump's Golden Toilet” you know it has to be a little offensive. But there's no violence or cussing. By today's standards, it's downright mild. Or so claims the author, Robert B+ saying “It's just very vivid and the scary truth in the lyrics makes it horrifying.”

Tune begins with a song that changed history, “Yankee Doodle.” A quick burst on flute and then a distorted guitar that segues into the sounds of marching feet. Sgt. Rump yells out “Alright people, are you with me? We’re marching to Victory!” After 4 minutes of outrage and clever rhymes, it ends with the singers urging us to “Get off your butt and VOTE!”

The Anti-Trump invective may be going viral. In just ten days, it's had 50,000 views on YouTube. The short link is bit.ly/TheGoldenToilet or enter the hashtag #goldentoiletsong and you'll be singing along with the onscreen lyrics.

“Unfortunately, there's something for everyone in this song,” contends Robert “Trump has offended almost every human and the lyrics speak volumes.” The song is designed to reach those disenfranchised non-voters that might be tempted to sit this one out or stay at home. It's edgy and funny at the same time.

He cuts a broad swath, from “He grunts and groans. He's rooty-tootin' while he tweets his love for Putin.” to “Where is Fairness? Where is Justice? Time for rebirth in the US.”

The song will generate discussions. RB mentions that his 12-year old grandson was laughing his tail off but he didn't like the line about stealing babies. “Stealing babies at the border. Sowing hatred and disorder.” But once the youngster learned that hundreds of immigrant families were being torn apart, he understood and was outraged.

Robert's on a mission to get the song heard by the masses and has reached out through social media to leverage his efforts. “I've tweeted to about a two hundred celebrities and the gamut of groups from Young Democrats to Stoners to Latinos to Gays, Blacks, Environmentalists and more urging them to use their power and position to make a difference.” Robert is stoked, “Combined, these folks have over a billion followers – once they start reaching out - it will be intense!”

There are so many races that are very close. A few hundred votes in each one could make a monumental difference. Some of Beto's campaign workers really got enthusiastic about this song which helped B+ find the final mojo to bring it to fruition. “I just started on Instagram and already JLo's following me. She has 111 million followers.”

Maybe this song can change history. We'll know in November. Tell us what you think.

"Donald Trump's Golden Toilet"

(It's a Joke. The Leader and the troops "call and answer" back and forth.)
marching footsteps / military drumming... stamp stamp stamp stamp spoken: Alright folks came an now. We're marching to Victory" stamp stamp stamp

E A E E B E
I don't know but I been told, Donald Trump's toilet is made of gold. (Troops sing back...)
When he squats to take a dump, Watch out for that my romp.
(Instrumental)
Crants and grunts, he's rusty-tootin' while he tweets his love for Putin.
Can't stain the swamp because he is it. Go to Russia for a visit.
Don't come back we'll take your visa. Say hi to Snowden if he'll see ya.

A E B E A E R E
Chorus: Oh Donald, what cha hidin' Oh Donald, time to go. time to go. time to go.
I don't know butt I bin told, Donald Trump's toilet is made of gold.
When these cheeks begin to quiver, Watch out, folks he'll soon deliver.
Instrumental
One more law to hurt the planet, Makes me want to hurt and vomit.
Sealing babies at the border, Sowin' hatred and disorder.

Chorus: Oh Donald, what cha hidin' Oh Donald, truth be told, truth be told, truth be told.
Marching... stamp... spoken: Alright folks, Are you still with me? We're sicking out the bums and taking our country back.

I don't know but I been told, Donald Trump's toilet is made of gold.

He wouldn't a won if he hadn't cheated, Let's make sure he gets defeated.
His best and brightest are in prison, There he ought to be there with em.
Instrumental
He set us back a hundred years, Telling lies and selling fear.
Where is fairness? Where is justice? Time for rebirth in the US.

Robert B+ Bio

I'm a lifelong artist, musician, writer, video producer and lately focused on using my talents for positive changes and social activism. RobertBplus.com and callexas.com are my websites.

My current effort is creating the mass-appeal Republicanism and especially the current President. I've written a comedy song to reach disenchanted non-voters and encourage them to "get off their butts and VOTE!" It's called "Donald Trump's Golden Toilet" and has gotten 50,000 views in just nine days! Oh The Golden Toilet is the YouTube link. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uj8v8v8v8v8> It's also available for free downloads at callexas.com and many other sites soon. Where is Fairness? Where is Justice? Time for rebirth in the US? Please share, like and retweet liberally. It's edgy, funny, scathing and could flip some noses.

A previous radio effort was to build the first responders and help survivors of the Valley Fire in northern California in 2015. I was living in Napa Valley and had to evacuate (again). I put together a community of singers, who I made videos and even included children's songs from the Lake County Sheriff's. It's relevant and helped people heal. NapaValleyPhonemusic.com I created a website for donations and reached out to all the CBS and NBC Reporters Magicians to get my "Thank You" out there to them. In fact, the South Fire just burned 2500 acres and came to within 500 yards of my former house. The whole neighborhood was evacuated and luckily escaped injuries thanks to the firefighters.

I've now returned to Austin where I lived before and created many of my best works. I was known as Silver Duffie then but Robert B+ is my current moniker. My songs are like mini-movies and the album "Symphony" can be found at callexas.com or at numerous music sites. I play all the restaurants and singing drummer Kevin Hayes added tremendously. He teamed with Robert Gray for many years and also with Hay Marsden.

I've set up a webpage at LaunchPad.com "Robert B+ Next Project" if you'd like to help me raise $10K in funds for my next album and future good works. If we raise over $20K, we'll enter the NBC/20/20 Theater. It would be a sustainable performance space for artists, music, original plays and even indie projects. I was a Wine Educator for many years and wrote "MUSIC" which is an album for wine tasting concerts show music.com The show includes audience participation and taping of the Napa Valley where, sharing 3 days per week will pay the contractors and provide many available days/night and funds for other things.

Here are some recent videos of the performing in Austin: bit.ly/RobertB+Live - bit.ly/Marsden-one and a 50 min live performance and interview from AustinTV Subchannel 40 at bit.ly/RobertB+Live

I lived in Los Angeles for a bunch of years and even had two million-dollar liquor stores. Did them, I moved to Napa Valley to take care of my mother who had developed Alzheimer's Disease. That was a tough job. After she passed, I wrote music for her book "The 100 Years of a Woman" which is a hardy wine musical parody called "SANTITA AND SONIC & daughter" and is on AmazonPrime at bit.ly/Santa2016 with the album on many music sites including callexas.com which is an album for wine tasting concerts show music.com make the best movie. I also created an "Epic Poem" eBook version (like Flinders Theatre) that is very fun reading about together for the hardy bit.ly/EpicPoem.

Another fun children's book I've written called "Tooth's Amazing Adventure" is about the time our parent escaped and they entered the town of El Estero while we tried to get him back. Scary but fun reading that written from the parent's POV. bit.ly/Tooth

While I was in Napa Valley, I also produced and performed in many original community theater shows. I wrote three songs "PLANET VEGAS" including one audience favorite "Oskar Butler" - The song is at callexas.com or bit.ly/PlanetVegas with one can also see on bit.ly/OskarButler which is the show. The song "Planet Vegas V+V" is on my zyncratic.com

Oh I mention the couple of years I spent in Las Vegas as a Paul McCartney and Roy Orbison impersonator? Definitely a lot of the source material for PLANET VEGAS.

If you're a golfer, you might get a kick out of my music video/song "That's Golf" in the lane of That's Life! at bit.ly/That'sGolf That's right, the group was called the Fab Four. The video is at bit.ly/That'sGolf and is quite a hoot. I also created a series of educational golf putting which you can find at callexas.com

If you made it this far, I'm impressed. One last noble venture has been starting Bocco Leagues. Huh? Yes, it's an amazing sport that brings people together for friendly competition and social interaction. I started the Santa Rosa Bocco League in 2009. It has morphed and now has some 500 members playing five nights a week. After the Valley Fire, I thought it would be great for their community and started the Middletown Bocco League. I think they've finally got a site chosen and are putting the contract together as we speak. And to add interest, I'm bringing Bocco to Texas! The sport's available through callexas.com and we're even getting our 501(c)(3). We're searching for sites among the 100+ parks here. I think Bocco will be included in the Austin's Ten Year Plan which will be a major milestone. It'll help you get one up in your community if you like. Great for people of all ages, shapes and sizes.

Thanks for your help with my artistic efforts.
