Coerced to finally tell the truth, Carrie is forced to disrupt lives, while trying to protect her daughter. “Get Out of Your Own Way” tells the story of how far one woman will go to save the people she loves. After being able to accept an ugly incident from her past, Carrie Wilkins learns how to be comfortable with the new life she created that was until her abuser is released from prison and learns that the decisions she made were the reason for her friend’s demise.

“Don’t complain, Create!” – Charron Monaye

PEN LEGACY occupies a special place in the hearts of many women and men – it’s not just a literary company but a brand that has created a movement to promote Writing, Authorship, Publishing and Coaching.

Founded in 2012, Charron Monaye launched PEN LEGACY, the ground-breaking literary company, which continues to help individuals share their stories and provide a platform to elevate their voices. Charron has flourished and expanded Pen Legacy beyond the pages of its small press publishing company to generate brand extensions such as the Pen Legacy Coaching, Books to Stage Entertainment and ventures within digital media.

In 2017, Founder Charron was named Woman Doing It Big by Millionaire Mogul Tiana Von Johnson and received an Honorary Doctorate of Philosophy (Humane Letters) from CICA International University & Seminary. Headquartered in Philadelphia, PA and authors globally, PEN LEGACY books can now be found worldwide in more than 50 countries. In addition to helping people share their story from Philadelphia to South Africa, PEN LEGACY also shapes the world by focusing on our mission: To empower, enhance, educate and entertain people from all walks of life.

“You can’t be everything to everybody, and nobody to yourself” – Charron Monaye
