Words Inspiring Art and Art Inspiring Words on a Trip-to-Earth Story

Salt Lake City, Oct 24, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Author Michelle Cheri Jardine's Our Trip to Earth, illustrated by her very own daughters AJ and Christine, is a storybook for children that brings to light the universal truth of how we are all temporary residents here on earth.

The book is a heartwarming tale, narrated from a first person's perspective, of how all of us come from heaven instead of earth. Before our arrival on earth, the wise and the angels have gathered around above and have taught each and every one of us about our trips to earth and provided us with guides on what we need to do during our stay. Readers are encouraged to practice good values while we're here on earth and to believe that we are all here to complete a mission.

The author believes that people need to connect with their spirit guides—the angels who keep us safe and guide us in fulfilling our purpose here on earth.

“Every child should have a copy of this book. The message of Our Trip to Earth, and throughout life, is easy for any child to understand. It will give a child a real feeling of security and purpose. Read it with your child or grandchild to start a conversation. The artwork, mostly by her young children, is precious and relatable for any child,” shared Kat, an Amazon reviewer, who gave the book a 5-star rating.

Jardine shared that the idea for the book came to her while she was in the shower. She believes that “we are all part of God, and a part of God is in all of us.” She hopes that the book will inspire readers to connect to their inner self, our internal angelic guides, and be not afraid of exploring the earth and braving adventures while we still have time to.
