Do you want to listen to dance music? Then, you must listen to Kendra Erika's remake song 'Self Control'. She is one of the most famous artists in the music world.

Boca Raton, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - Kendra Erika is a multiple Top 10 Billboard recording artist from Boca Raton, United States. She is a songwriter and singer; she is also a trained classical singer. She made her name for herself on dance floors, rocking her full-throttle bangers on club stages all across the USA. She drew her music inspiration that is written with pure sentiments from the artist like Lana Del Rey, Solange, Ellie Goulding, and London Grammar. Her song 'Self Control' is originally sung by Laura Branigan and you can listen to the remake on Soundcloud. The essence of the music is maintained by space which gathers simply all the elements that make a clear-cut rhythm and riff. Its soundscape is superb and the beat progresses perfectly between strength and flawlessness. The remix of this track offers both nostalgia and the birth of something that is completely different.

Kendra Erika equipment brave and lyrical communication in her music, an idea which has been embraced as something fresh to club fans used to heeding a song's beat but paying minimum concentration to its messages. The voice rides on top of the beat in classic 80's manner. The passion of 'Self Control' is powerful that enhance and surrounds the listeners in the best possible way. This song is produced by Damon Sharpe and Eric Sanicola.

Kendra Erika brings a dynamic cinematic to every song that she produces. The passion in the track 'Self Control' is powerfully enhanced and it surrounds the listeners in all possible way. This remake brings certain vibrancy and brightness which works beautifully. The beat in the music seems to speed up and the constant rhythm becomes something of a hallucination. The soundscape in the composition keeps the things moving and holds tightly the listener's attention.
