Los Angeles, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Jay Singh, Famous Hip Hop singer in Los Angeles, known by the name Indian Trap is from UK, raised in London. He comes from a musical background so his love for music is from a very early age. His first love was urban music, Hip-Hop, and R&B. He has a special kind of love for Indian music and this is evident from his songs. From that point he started his career as a DJ and after that EDM became his new love. Indian Trap won the award Ministry of Sounds DJ idol competition in London, UK. It gave him the scope to play alongside big DJ's like David Guetta, Tiesto. After the success of his single 'Look Like Monayyy' which was a huge hit, producer Jay Singh dropped his latest track 'Trapped'.

Indian Trap produces song mainly of Hip-Hop, Trap and Rap genre. His music has a blend of Punjabi, Bhangra and Bollywood music. It is fused with Hip-Hop and Trap elements. This track 'Trapped' is featured by two different artists, a female rapper named KresZenia and R&B artist named Chris Scholar. Their music is unique and feels fresh because they combine multiple genres and elements as mentioned before. The song 'Trapped' is a fusion of Trap and Hip-Hop and starts with authentic Indian music and vocals which gives it an exclusive touch.

The song 'Trapped' by Indian Trap gives us a hypnotic effect and is infectious with R&B chorus mixed with female Rap vocals. It is a perfect balance and total justice done to the song by both the artists. They worked hard to give it a touch of authenticity. Indian Trap wants his music to be felt and just not heard. He released this track via J2 Entertainment.
