

Kent Hartje of Butte Montana becomes a Graduate Safety Practitioner (GSP)

Designation issued by the Board of Certified Safety Professionals

Butte-Silver Bow, Oct 13, 2018 (IssueWire.com) - Kent C Hartje, GSP has completed all requirements for a Board of Certified Safety Professionals (BCSP) designation. This highly respected designation is awarded by BCSP to individuals who meet academic criteria in the safety, health, and environmental (SH&E) discipline. Mr Hartje is a recent graduate of the Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) program from Montana Tech of the University of Montana. During his academic studies he received scholarships from Newmont Mining in Montana and the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH).

Safety issues have become more complex, and today's safety professional must continually be better qualified. BCSP credential holders are among the most highly trained, educated, and experienced individuals in the safety field. Having achieved a BCSP credential shows that the individual has mastered the core competency required for professional safety practice. BCSP's Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Treasa Turnbeaugh, CSP, ASP, CET, CAE comments that "It is critical to maintain competent individuals within the SH&E industry because of the impact they have on the safety of workers and the public."

BCSP is recognized as a leader in high-quality credentialing for safety, health, and environmental practitioners (SH&E). BCSP establishes standards for and verifies competency in professional safety practice and evaluates certificants for compliance with recertification requirements. All certifications are accredited or in the process of becoming accredited. BCSP maintains the highest accreditations for its certifications, proving their value through independent, third-party evaluations. Since 1969, over 58,000 individuals have achieved the CSI), SMS, ASP, OHST, CHST, STS, STSC or CET credential. BCSP is a not-for-profit corporation with headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, USA.
