

Latest Track 'Dark Horse' By Australia Based Singer Sally Crosby Has An Incredibly Impressive Musica

Are you a classical music lover? Then, you must listen to Sally Crosby's new track 'Dark Horse'. The musical flow and the rhythm in the track are quite attractive.

Garfield, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Sally Crosby is a British singer and songwriter who grew up in Mid Wales. Her songs are mainly based on a ukulele, piano and acoustic guitar based. Her song has honest and raw, impassioned and emotive feel. She started learning piano when she was only five years old and later she learned violin and the clarinet. While studying music and creative writing at university she found herself spending time between playing violin in orchestras and with the flock-rock band. After completing her graduation she started writing for herself, mostly for piano and acoustic guitar, an instrument that she learned as a teenager. To get more updates about her upcoming tracks then you can follow her on Facebook, and Twitter. Her new track 'Dark Horse' has a certain glow of hope.

Australia based singer Sally Crosby's track 'Dark Horse' is a short haunting piece in D minor highlighting piano, clarinet, violin, glockenspiel, and vocals. The instrument in this track stands tall for contrasting depth alongside the lighter driving melody. The space and the delicacy in the track work beautifully at certain points. The piece grows more intense as the song progresses.

Acoustic indie folk-pop singer-songwriter Sally Crosby's track 'Dark Horse' has every melodic moment and the track progresses gracefully from the gentle to the intense. The sound in the track is crisp, hypnotic and nostalgic. The sound in the track is fantastic, the hypnotic melody lines up to keep the listeners captivated and the skill and effort with which the artist has crafted the piece never fail to amaze. The intense instrumental piece of music creates an entire journey before the listeners. The rhythm and the rising intensity in the track is somehow epic march towards something that is meaningful.
