

Nick Ronald to host the “Key to Unlock your Potential” event in London

Communications consultant, motivational speaker, Nick Ronald, collaborates with renowned international public speaker, coach and consultant, Kate Iroegbu, to organize “Key to Unlock your Potential”

London, Nov 6, 2018 (IssueWire.com) - “Key to Unlock your Potential” is an innovative event organized to help people to realise their potential in life and break out of often frustrating or stressful situation, they feel stuck in. The aim of the organizers of the event, Nick Ronald and Kate Iroegbu is simple – to help people unlock their potential.

The recent Time-to-talk day set about encouraging everyone to talk about mental health and end discrimination. The day highlighted many statistics including that 1 in 6 British workers are affected by conditions like anxiety, depression, and stress every year. This rather unfortunate statistics has led Nick Ronald and Kate Iroegbu to pursue the goal of helping people reach their very best regardless of the obstacles life throws at them. This can be anything from getting a promotion to changing a career, starting a business, doing something more fulfilling, contributing more to society or just being able to worry less about work, finances, and other such issues.

Evidence shows that having a purpose in life makes one achieve more, be more focused and happier. Having a vision of one’s destination or goal is something that most people wish for, but unfortunately, not a lot of people have. There are instances where the goal is known but the way to get there is unknown. This is where Nick and Kate are looking to make a huge difference with the “Key to Unlock your Potential” event.

Nick Ronald (Communications consultant, motivational speaker, author, and coach) and Kate Iroegbu (a motivational speaker, author, international public speaker, coach, and consultant) have started running free workshops (Empower to Fulfil Your potential) to help people get the right mindset, toolset and skillset to start that change.

The duo has continuously shown their passion and commitment to sharing their skills and knowledge as well as inspiring people to move their life forward to that next level.

‘Key to Unlock your Potential’ is a full day event that will help people come with an idea and leave with a plan. In addition to Nick and Kate taking attendees on a life-changing experience, there will also be other experts on Project Management, motivational speakers, an Image Consultant, a Wealth Coach, and a Vocal Coach to offer everything needed to address different life needs. The event is an opportunity to learn from the experts and leave with the confidence and knowledge to do the right thing.

Nick has been a communications professional for 25 years and is passionate about helping people get their story across and learn how to influence people more. Kate, on the other hand, is a famous motivational speaker that has become increasingly popular thanks to her successful YouTube channel ‘Kate O Show’. Between them is a lot of experience in helping people achieve their goals.
