

Andrew Brown's Supercar Hire Company, Classic Parade, Continues to Expand

London, Dec 19, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Classic Parade, a UK-based supercar hire, and the rental company that provides users with access to everything from Bentleys to Maseratis continue to expand its fleet and offer even more rentals following its tremendous success throughout 2018.

Led by Andrew Brown, Classic Parade constantly works to source new rentals and expand their options so clients can have their pick of rentals anytime, anywhere.

“When it comes to car rentals, sometimes, we want something more than the bargain car available down the street; we want a piece of luxury, even if only for a moment,” said Brown. “That’s exactly what we are able to provide through Classic Parade. It’s a new kind of car rental that everyone has been dreaming of, and we’re happy to open that world up to those who are interested.”

All Classic Parade supercars come with self-drive hire insurance for 2 drivers, deliverable to any UK address 7-days per week. In just a few minutes, renters are able to drive their Classic Parade rental anywhere in London, the UK, and throughout Europe.

Classic Parade also offers a VIP Guaranteed Gold Service, including high standard vehicle valeting and 24-point checks that deliver top service at any location.

“We’re in the business of customer service, and we take that role incredibly seriously,” said Brown. “We provide different levels of service, as well as a variety of options, to all of our interested patrons. We know the world is waiting to be explored, right from the highway, and that's exactly what we want to provide here at a Classic parade.

Classic Parade offers supercar hires, classic hires, e-Supercar hires, and simple car and van rentals.
