

The Rejuvenating Beats of Gannon Hall will Get You Hooked to his Music Collection

Taking the world by storm with his music abilities is none other than the famous Gannon Hall. He has launched four of his latest spellbinding tracks on Spotify.

San Francisco, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - Musicians don't just create music; it is the way they communicate with people. Gannon Hall who is known for his various skills communicates with the world in the same way. Not only is he a musician but he also possesses the knowledge of a technologist. He composes his own lyrics and has also worked with renowned men like Greg Allman, John Zorn, Larry Ochs etc. Among his huge collection, four tracks that have caught the public attention are 'Drive', 'Everything is Dust', 'Night in the city' and 'Airport'. These tracks have an intense lyricism and the voices of the artists allow the tracks to bloom. Gannon records most of his songs in Miami. He uses his label Blackstar Records to produce as many creative tracks as possible.

'Drive', 'Everything is Dust', 'Night in the city' and 'Airport' stood out the most among Gannon's collection due to their exclusive creation. Though it is based on the genre of pop the tracks have soulful vibes of blues with rejuvenating beats. Initially, the songs have a catchy tune and a rhythmic beginning and are soon followed by nostalgic vocals. As the tracks progress from one verse to the other the intensity of the songs enhances. The tracks with their colourful ambience are the perfect mood setter at the end of the day.

Gannon Hall was once the part of the famous rock band Mordred and had sold out performances in London. He has a huge fan following in his social sites such as Facebook, Instagram and Soundcloud.
