

Howie G - Guitarist with Persian Risk Releases Debut Solo Album

Master of the Night debut solo album from Howie G

Crewe, Jan 14, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - It is with great pleasure and anticipation that Howie G can now reveal the launch date of his debut solo album, Master of the Night. On 16th January 2019, this blues/rock album will be available to download from trusted music sites such as iTunes, Spotify, Amazon Music etc. CD's will also be available via the website.

Full of memorable riffs, spine-tingling solos and haunting lyrics this long-awaited album brings a mix of blues and rock to the table with 9 original tracks all written and performed (Guitar and Vocals) by Howie G. 'Master of the Night' hopes to bring something new, fresh and rocking to the scene.

This talented guitarist has worked with the likes of Carl Sentence (Nazareth, Persian Risk), Phil Campbell (Motorhead) and Don Airey (Deep Purple/Rainbow). Influenced by many of the worlds greatest guitarists covering many genres and generations (Jimi Hendrix, Robin Trower, Tony Iommi, Brian May, Mark Knopfler, Billy Gibbons, Gary Moore, Eddie Van Halen, Joe Satriani). Howie G has the ability to make you smile, cry and tap your foot all at the same time.
