

Henrock's New Track 'Drop That' is a Contemporary Musical Journey of Lyrical Extravaganza

Hip-hop artist Henrock is creating the best verses of hip-hop and club sound mixes with contemporary flairs and groovy beats in his newly released track 'Drop That'.

Philadelphia, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - The newest kid on the block, Henrock is making some of the grooviest tracks to sort your Saturday plans straight. His newest single 'Drop That' celebrates the glory of life with a whole new perspective. He is a natural lyricist who is creating music right out of the most ordinary of everyday experiences. All of 22, Henrock's fan base and his overall impact are travelling miles in the cultural celebration of music itself. He chooses to work towards the youth crowd by delivering groovy tracks and melodies that sit fit with the contemporary club scene.

Hip-hop as a genre has put together all the fragments of rebellion and historic feats into a musical experience that everyone can relate to. Henrock too is treading the path of systemic change through his songs that comprise of all the flavors that the modern-day youth is hooked on to. 'Drop That' is an example of how hip-hop has changed its course in terms of expression and its supporting melody into an extremely comforting space for the audience.

Although 'Drop That' is being circulated among some of the most celebrated hip-hop charts across several audio platforms, he is not new to business. Some of his other singles like 'Gold Teeth' and

'Eddie Kane' also puts together beautiful notes and lyrical flow of the modern wave of music. He is working on his album already called 'Shooting My Shot' which is definitely going to be yet another explosion of flavorsome musical affair.
