

Hip hop sensation Anita Will releases her debut Ep "The Real Anita Will"

Without warning

Atlanta, Feb 6, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - After riding the Wave of last year's success with the BIPOLAR project, Miami Singer / Songwriter and Emcee, Anita Will breaks her creative silence with a nine-track EP. The artist debuts a new Hip Hop and Soulful inspired EP named "The Real Anita Will".

In this new EP, Anita boldly executes an old Kanye West inspired concept while remaining true to her own original Gemini style. “The Real Anita Will” is layered with familiar samples, addictive hooks, and provocative rap flows. Partnered with Anita’s undeniable singing ability, “The Real Anita Will” is a genuine glimpse into the mind of a Gemini who is passionately in love with life and music.

“Try”, was one of the first singles released from the new project and has been quickly gaining popularity in the Miami & Atlanta’s underground Hip Hop scene and beyond. Shortly thereafter, Anita dropped a surprise Ep without promo or warning.

Each track on the EP is an illustration of Anita’s muses and real-life experiences. In the spirit of classic “Ye”, Anita holds nothing back. She lyrically battles stereotypes about her sexuality, her search for perfect love and finding her own value as an artist. She is pushing the boundaries of hip hop beyond the average rapper or singer role.

“The Real Anita Will” features collaborations with Rob Hicks and Prince El J. Confidence, style and power all in one package. Anita Will describes her new music as, “The dopest shit ever uttered on a mic.”

“The Real Anita Will” is available now on all digital platforms.
