Atlanta, Mar 25, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Majority Greek Magazine is a subdivision of ADJ Media. It was founded in 2019 as a bi-monthly service driven periodical, created by A.D. Jones of Atlanta, Georgia for southeastern American's distinct and elite members of fraternal organizations and those interested, which covers newsworthy events of local businesses, traditional acts of service, fashion trends, social and business actions and sporting happenings.

Majority Greek Magazine's purpose is the brand's distinct position to act as a central pool for spotlighting the members of the minority fraternities and sororities as they constantly serve as pillars of their communities. Majority Greek looks into this culture and how it operates in the area of business, community service, fashion, sports, leadership and more.

"Many times the pillars of our communities go unspoken" Greeks are those pillars, stated Duane Jones CEO.

Join Majority Greek for their official launch Hosted By Actress Reece Odum on April 18, 2019, from 7pm-10pm. This event will be held at Letters Greek Apparel 670 11th St NW in Atlanta, GA 30318.
