

NY Author's Comprehensive New Book Offers Proactive Tools to Fight Domestic Violence

Learn how to utilize workplace environment to address the danger of violence at home

Tucson, Mar 3, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Author Zepora Bastian Certain's "Break the Silent Cycle of Domestic Violence," is packed with extensive research, insightful tips, and action plan against violence. It is a detailed guide for business entities that are committed to doing more in order to protect their employees and help those who have endured violent behavior.

The book helps readers identify victims of domestic violence in their workplaces. It works as a tool one can use to reach out to colleagues. As someone who has experienced domestic violence, Certain confronts the shameful ill-treatment of working individuals at home. Her work is a testament to her healing process as well as an encouragement to her readers who are undergoing the same struggle.

Authors Press will showcase “Break the Silent Cycle of Domestic Violence” at the Tucson Festival of Books to be held at the University of Arizona campus this coming March 2-3, 2019. Readers and festival goers will get an exclusive preview of the book at booth number 154. To get the latest update on authors, like and follow Authors Press on Facebook and Twitter.
