New York City, Mar 8, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Having more than 20 years of experience in her field, Dr. Behara currently practices as a gastroenterologist with her private practice Regional Digestive Consultants, P.A. in Shenandoah, Texas.

She is dedicated to providing excellent and compassionate care for a wide array of gastrointestinal, liver, biliary tract diseases, and pancreatic diseases with full access to the most cutting edge technology. She works together with the patient's primary care physicians and specialists to provide cost-effective treatment tailored to meet each patient's individual needs. She communicates with our patient's physicians to keep up-to-date on the treatment plan and the patient's progress. She analyzes all data including labs, radiology, endoscopy, and pathology reports to ensure a well-coordinated plan of care.

She is also affiliated with Houston Northwest Medical Center, Kingwood Medical Center, Memorial Hermann Northeast Hospital, and Memorial Hermann The Woodlands Hospital.

Regional Digestive Consultants, P.A. is dedicated to providing excellent and compassionate care for a wide array of gastrointestinal, liver, biliary tract diseases, and pancreatic diseases with full access to the most cutting edge technology.

Dr. Behara earned her medical degree in 1992 from Andhra Medical College in Visakhapatnam, India.

Upon earning her medical degree, Dr. Behara relocated to the United States and went on to complete her residency in Internal Medicine at St. Francis Hospital in Evanston, Illinois, followed by her fellowship training in Gastroenterology at Cook County Hospital. She is board certified in Gastroenterology by the American Board of Internal Medicine.

Since its founding in 1936 to answer a public call to establish more uniform standards for physicians, Certification by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) has stood for the highest standard in internal medicine and its 20 subspecialties. Certification has meant that internists have demonstrated – to their peers and to the public – that they have the clinical judgment, skills, and attitudes essential for the delivery of excellent patient care.

She also holds professional memberships with the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, the Texas Medical Association, and the Harris County Medical Society.

Gastroenterology is the branch of medicine focused on the digestive system and its disorders. A gastroenterologist is a physician who has extensive training in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the esophagus, stomach, intestines, and biliary system.
