Let's take a tour to the interesting conversation conveyed by this young heart -

"Envy, drowning the feet of the uplifting man, showing his deception and his evil deeds to the people"

In recent years, the number of video bloggers is growing steadily. Whichever's camera falls, she takes a video and shares it on social networks and becomes a blogger. Whether they are successful bloggers depends on the number of visitors to their videos, their timely recognition, and their messages to the community.

Today, among the hundreds of bloggers, one of the favorites is Alikhan Rajabov (Alixan Racabov). The themes he touched on his videos reflect today.

- Who is Alikhan Rajabov?

- Alihan is an ordinary person. He is a person who does not want to be elected.

- How did you decide to be a blogger?

- I have been trained at the National Aviation Academy. During 2008-2013, I was a student at the KVN. We even represented Azerbaijan in Russia and the CIS countries. But nobody knew it. After the end of the KVN's work - in 2016, I decided to convey my message to the public via the blog. I thought something could happen. It was bought. I was known as a blogger.

- What bloggers are you inspired by?

- I have never seen anyone in Azerbaijan. There is a well-known Russian blogger Yevgeny Bajenyov. I like his daughters very much. Looking at him, I have been working in this field. In Azerbaijan, I like only one person, Taleh Yüzbayov.

- In a blog you combine 2-3 images. What do you mean by these images?

- My goal was to show people in society, help them improve their problems. But it did not happen. Because people are looking at the vayn or the bloc to laugh, and not to get out of it. Envy, dropping the legs of the uplifting man, and telling people how bad they are.

- Was it under your feet?

- Even so ... Not only did they pull it out, they still do. How accurate we will say, they will throw as much.

- Can you picture 4-5 images on your blogs? Which is more close to you?

- I'm not one of them. I'm totally different from the camera. I am one who loves the calmness and fled from society. Sometimes I can go to nature with everything. Or I can go abroad. For example, I recently went to Georgia and had a rest for a while. Even though I am able, I will travel with my friends to a number of countries. The popularity is alien to me. On the contrary, I love to be at home and watch a movie without being in the crowd. Generally, people are all tired. That's why we need to change the environment and conditions that we have. A person cannot eat tomato egg every day a year. After a while, he is disgusted by eating.

- So, what makes you famous?

- Some people are far from esthetics, culture. It hurts me. There are those who call "Ayya, Alikhan". They think that if I'm in the video, I should be alive in life. When they are serious, they say, "Why are not you laughing?" In other words, they want to have a sincere attitude after two words. This is not true.

- You have recently saved video footage. Reason?

- I conclude that the videos I take are of no use. Mirza Alakbar said in Sabir's time, but they did not accept him at that time. But after his death, they said, "Well, he was right." Now nothing has changed. I do not care for anymore, and I often do not shoot videos. Generally, I do not like the word vayn.

- Why?

- A few years ago there was a program named Vayn. It used to be called the video writer. The program has already been removed, but we still have wires.

- How did you think about developing yourself in this field?

- If I can afford it, then I will go abroad and get an actor or directorship. After that, I can tell myself an actor. I'm still a blogger. I can not call myself an actor if I do not get an education, as some wagons. After all, they do not know about cinema and actor, film history. To become an actor, you must at least know Stanislavsky.

- Is there a age limit for blogging?

- The blogger is old, of course. The Pyramid is the summit. In our opinion, bloggers stand on the 2-3rd stage of the pyramid and go to the advertisement.

- Most bloggers advertise everything. Do you think this is true?

- Yes, most of them start with socks and advertise as sub-dresses. I have not yet reached that level. There is nothing wrong with this, including Cristiano Ronaldo, Zlatan Ibrahimovic and others. world stars have been filming such subtitles. And I must first get to their level.

- As you can say, it is possible to earn money for each view from Youtube. That's why bloggers download more videos to the channel.

- Frankly, my videos have been visited by 2-3 million, and I've earned $ 100 on those views. I can count myself a millionaire (laughs).

- What is your advice for those who want to become a new blogger?

- Let them not. Do not be a blogger. Deal with more serious and necessary work. Without it, they will nap in a while.
