Charming Fable Deals with Ambition and Chasing One's Dreams

An endearing tale about an ambitious spider

Los Angeles, Apr 7, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Author Chaz Franklin releases his engaging children's book "The Spider Who Chewed Bubblegum," a fable about a spider who wants more in her life.

In the story, Aranea the spider hates eating flies and wants to change her diet to bubblegum. She craves more than just getting stuck in her mundane life. She finds out later that there's more to bubblegum than meets the eye and that life isn't as easy as it seems.

Fun and endearing, the story emphasizes the importance of friendship, ambition, and goals. It teaches a valuable lesson in the end wherein pursuing dreams based on what's really makes life more interesting and worth living. Children and adults alike can learn a lot from the story.

Authors Press will showcase "The Spider Who Chewed Bubblegum" at the Los Angeles Times Festival of Books to be held at the University of Southern California this coming April 13-14, 2019. Franklin's book will be displayed at Authors Press' booth number 937. To get the latest update on authors, like and follow Authors Press on Facebook and Twitter.
