

Claim Flight Refund Redefines The Rights Of The Travellers

EU REGULATION

Was your flight delayed, cancelled or overbooked? You may be entitled to compensation of €250.00, €400.00 or €600.00 per passenger. Your rights are protected under the European regulations.

The amount of compensation you are entitled to is not determined by the price of the ticket but by the length of the delay and the distance of the trip. In theory you are entitled to a compensation According to EU regulations, but in practice the Airlines will do everything to try and avoid paying it. This is where our legal team intervene to fight for your right.

Regulation (EC) No 261/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 February 2004 establishing common rules on compensation and assistance to passengers in the event of denied boarding and of cancellation or long delay of flights, and repealing Regulation (EEC) No 295/91 (Text with EEA relevance) - Commission Statement

Article 7: Right to compensation; Where reference is made to this Article, passengers shall receive compensation amounting to:

- (a) EUR 250 for all flights of 1500 kilometres or less;
- (b) EUR 400 for all intra-Community flights of more than 1500 kilometres, and for all other flights between 1500 and 3500 kilometres;
- (c) EUR 600 for all flights not falling under (a) or (b).
