Get to know Acupuncturist Dr. Heather Leisa Lee, who serves patients in Boca Raton, Florida.

New York City, Apr 16, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Dr Lee is a licensed acupuncturist (LAc) who is currently serving patients at Acupuncture Boca Raton - Washington Acupuncture Center, located in Boca Raton, Florida. The Washington Acupuncture Center is the nation's first acupuncture clinic founded by Dr Lee's father - Dr Yao Wu Lee. It was established in 1972 in Washington D.C., officially bringing the age-old medical treatment to the country and igniting an interest in acupuncture in American patients, physicians, and researchers. Since its opening, the clinic has opened offices in several locations on the east coast of Florida.

Fascinated with Oriental Medicine, Dr Lee's father taught her everything she knows.

Dr Lee received her Master of Science degree in Acupuncture from the Atlantic Institute of Oriental Medicine in 2010.

Acupuncture is a form of alternative medicine in which thin needles are inserted into the body. It is a key component of traditional Chinese medicine. As an acupuncturist, Dr Lee consults with patients about their symptoms, diagnoses the issue, and treats it using acupuncture needles and other tools. She aims to improve the body's functions and to promote the natural self-healing process by stimulating specific anatomic sites - commonly referred to as acupuncture points or acupoints.

Dr Lee attributes her success in helping patients and seeing improvement in their health after each visit. She strives to help them feel better and go on to live healthier lives.

Dr Lee continues to practice holistic healing, which is the practice of health and wellness that considers the entire person and all of the internal and external factors affecting them. It seeks to maintain or restore balance among (and within) the various dimensions of the individual.
