

The Well-Crafted Track 'Kamikaze' Launched by the Rapper Kurt Kain is Winning Millions of Hearts

Put your party shoes on and hit the dance floor with 'Kamikaze' created by the rapper Kurt Kain. The insane musicality of the track is mind-blowing and alluring.

Grass Valley, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - The talented artist Kurt Kain has been creating quite the buzz in the music industry with his new hip-hop track 'Kamikaze'. Being a duet the track has the collaborating of Kurt Kain with Lady Roshak to it. Hailing from California he wants to share his talent with the world. Though most of his tracks are motivational, in 'Kamikaze' he changed up the rhythm of the composition by making it a party composition. The soundscape of the track can't be compared to any creation available there in the industry. The artist has been creating music for quite some time now and each of his creation has been better than the previous ones. He also owns his production house titled as Oracle Records.

The track 'Kamikaze' can be described as the ultimate party composition, composed in a while. The track is uplifting for the audience and is the perfect track to be enjoyed with friends and family during the weekends. The melodic line is perfect as the bass and beats are perfectly synchronised suiting the ambience of the tracks. The well-crafted lyricism of the track is captivating enough to get anyone hooked to it. 'Kamikaze' is free-flowing, spontaneous and is exactly what a hip-hop track should be like. Though it is a party there is an underlining sentimentality added to it by Kurt Kain.

This California rapper is one of the best hip-hop artists the music world has come across. Despite the hardships faced by Kurt Kain through his life he never gave up his passion for music. In fact, it can be said that it was music that helped the artist to move forward in life. Some of his track is "Lighters Up", "iron in my blood (m)", "Venom Flow (m)", "Real spit (m)", etc. You can follow the artist on Facebook and Instagram.
