The Life of a BLACK REPUBLICAN
in Trump's America

Dedicated to John McCain:
The Last Republican Senator with any Decency, Integrity or Courage!

District of Columbia, Apr 22, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Peter W. Sherrill, "The Unknown Black Republican" and former Presidential Candidate in 2016, launches damning, and extremely alarming information into the heart of the Republican Party's largest donor and major financier to the 2016 Trump Campaign, in his new book, "The Life of a Black Republican in Trump's America."

In this new book, now available on Amazon Prime, Sherrill chronicles how one man, who is the largest donor in the Republican Party, now controls and threatens our entire "Democracy" through his generous donations to the Party.

This one man, who Sherrill refers to as "The Puppet Master," has been able to remain anonymous, while Mark Zuckerberg and the company he owns, (Facebook), has faced enormous criticism and scrutiny from Senate Hearings and even British Parliament, about the 2016 Elections and Brexit, while "The Puppet Master" and the companies he own, remain at large!

Sherrill dedicates his new book to the late Senator John McCain, who he believes was "The last Republican Senator with any "Decency, Integrity, or Courage!"

"The Unknown Black Republican," former Presidential Candidate 2016 and previous director Homeland Security, leaves us with these two questions, as he explores a 2020 run.

First and foremost, "How can the Party which once championed Emancipation Proclamation, now champion Donald Trump and white nationalism?" Secondly, "How much longer will the American Taxpayer be forced to finance the wars, bailouts and tax cuts of the Elite?"

"To find out more information about "The Puppet Master" and how he is controlling our Senators, Judges, and our "Democracy, "GOOGLE IT," says Sherrill, or pick up a copy of his new book on Amazon Prime!
