Get to know Chiropractor Dr. Bernard Olson, who serves patients in Missoula, Montana.

New York City, May 9, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Olson is a chiropractor who is currently serving patients in Missoula, Montana. He is one of 350 chiropractors in the country who has been trained in the Atlas Orthogonal treatment, as well as the only one in the state of Montana.

Dr. Olson is affiliated with Precision Chiropractic, where he uses objective and accurate diagnostic indicators to evaluate the structure and stability of a patient's spine. Some of the testing and procedures that the practice offers include digital structural x-rays, bio-structural analysis, structural symmetrical analysis, and Atlas Orthogonal for structural corrections. The number one priority of Precision Chiropractic is to guide a patient's spine back to its natural and normal state by using Atlas Orthogonal.

Dr. Olson received his Bachelor of Science (BS), as well as his Doctor of Chiropractic (DC) from the Palmer College of Chiropractic.

Dr. Olson attributes his success to his dedication and his desire to help others.

Chiropractic is a form of alternative medicine mostly concerned with the diagnosis and treatment of mechanical disorders of the musculoskeletal system, especially the spine. As a chiropractor, Dr. Olson uses hands-on spinal manipulation and other alternative treatments - the theory being that proper alignment of the body's musculoskeletal structure, particularly the spine, will enable the body to heal itself without surgery or medication. He treats conditions such as sciatica, neck pain, and arthritis pain, among many others.
