

Gripping Tales of Wisdom, Humor and Life's Drama on Artist's New Released Book

Writer shares stories that inspire and motivates

Pittsburg, May 26, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - New York City, NY — Christina Barnes' Wildly Human: Quirky and Empowering Stories is a collection of nineteen compelling short stories that give wings to one's powerful imagination. Each story challenges the readers' diverse perspectives and emotions. As everyone goes about taking the journey of life, this book provides not only inspiration but also strikes a funny bone to lighten up the day.

Christina's goal is to motivate us to connect the dots of our own story and fall in love with ourselves and our lives, no matter how weird, odd, sad, or crazy it is. Writing modern day fables is a way of gaining a new perspective on what is possible, and Christina's book helps in encouraging that creative side of us to come out and play.

"I absolutely loved this book! The format was so inspirational from the pictures to the quotes to the stories themselves. After reading it through I find myself picking it up in moments when I need some inspiration and am amazed how often I open it to a page that is meaningful for what I need in that very moment. It's amazing how much wisdom can be imparted in just a few pages. My kids love it as well, I have a daughter who is struggling through some personal issues and this book has been an inspiration and she has shared it with others who can use some words of wisdom. The art is absolutely amazing. I have never seen anything like it before. From cover to cover I would recommend this book. On so many levels it is captivating and something you will share with others and go back to time and again for a boost of insight," shares an Amazon customer.

Christina's work will be exhibited at the BookExpo + BookCon 2019, to be held at the Jacob Javits Center, New York City, this coming May 29 to 31 and June 1 and 2, 2019, at the Authors Press Booth # 1667.
