Betsy is a wife, mother, grandmother, and friend who lives to love all people with God's love. She has been on a life-long journey of learning how to overcome the pain of rejection, abandonment as an infant, and from living in an orphanage. The God of Love came to her in the orphanage and put a song in her heart that has never left her. She committed her life to this God of Love at age ten and ever since has been on a pursuit to intimately know Him. He taught her how to know His Voice above all other voices enabling her to triumphantly overcome the many disturbing circumstances in her life.
