

Melky Jean presents the Carma Foundation's 12th Annual Geminis Give Back Extravaganza

Hosted by the foundation's own Melky Jean alongside her celebrity friends Super Model Tyson Beckford and Azia (BET) honorees include Former NBA Champion John Salley, NFL Jonathan Vilma, Miss Haiti Universe Sarodj Bertin, Comedian Fatboy SSE and more

Miami, May 24, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Grammy Nominated Singer and Songwriter Melky Jean will host what has become one of the entertainment industry's most anticipated events of the year, The Carma Foundation's Geminis Give Back Event. This year is the 12th anniversary for Jean's nonprofit whose mission is to measurably improve the health of poor and vulnerable women and children in the Caribbean and inner cities of the United States through action, dialogue, and change.

Annually, Ms. Jean opts to forgo gifts for her birthday and instead prefers to ask that her celebrity friends, family, and the community donate to the Carma Foundation. Jean's selflessness and humility has not gone unnoticed and her efforts have garnered her support and the prestige and recognition from various organizations. Every year, Geminis Give Back is memorable. Last year featured athlete Ray Lewis' inspirational opening prayer, Wyclef Jean and Jason Derulo's epic performance, feather-clad dancers in bejeweled costumes, Caribbean drummers, handmade cigars, silent art auction, and fine Caribbean cuisine. GGB 2018 was the talk of Miami, and this year will be no different with special performances and a carnival theme!

Nestled in the prime section of the city, this year's event will be host by the foundation's own Melky Jean alongside her celebrity friends Super Model Tyson Beckford and Azia (BET's Hustle in Brooklyn) and will take place at the Seminole Casino Coconut Creek at 6 PM with a star-studded red carpet hour. This year's honorees will include Former NBA player John Salley, NFLer Jonathan Vilma, Miss Haiti Universe Sarodj Bertin, comedian and entrepreneur FatBoy SSE, Fran McDuffie, and Rebecca Noble.

Typical to form, a "who's who" are expected to be in attendance for this years' event with people flying in from all over to support Melky Jean's mission. Raz B from the popular boy band B2K and VH1's Love & Hip-Hop L.A. along with Actor and Recording Artist Kalle Brooks, NFL greats O.J. McDuffie, Nolan Carroll and Noah Spence, Recording Artist Chingy, Reality Star Royce Reed, Comedian Jessimae Peluso, TV/Radio personality K. Foxx, Actor and Model Cullen Muzik, and many more are expected to attend.

About Melky Jean

Melky Jean aka Melky Sedeck is a GRAMMY nominated Singer and Songwriter, Author, Director and Humanitarian who happens to be the younger sister of Fugees founder Wyclef Jean. Melky has written for artist like Sinead O'Connor, Regina Belle and many others. Jean's distinct vocals can be found on artist like Carlos Santana's album "The Shaman". She has also contributed songs to soundtracks like "Love Jones" (their breakout single, "I've Got a Love"), "Little Nikki", "Two Can Play That Game", "The Hurricane" ("Still I Rise"), and she is the voice of Sanaa Lathan in HBO's hit "Disappearing Acts" where she landed one of her biggest hits (Brooklyn) a heartfelt ballad.

As a performer, Melky has opened up for GRAMMY Award-winning recording groups such as Roots, Black Eyed Peas, and OutKast, along with sharing the stage with powerhouses performer including like Sheryl McLachlan and the incomparable Patti LaBelle. She has garnish press in well over 100 magazine publications from around the world. Marie Claire and Rolling Stones have critically acclaimed Melky. Rolling Stones magazine named her, "One of the best underground acts". Vibe Magazine and even Cosmopolitan Magazine went as far as to compare her to a young Gladys Knight.

Given her extensive and broad entertainment career, she has still made time to pay it forward. Her most gratifying accomplishment to date is an organization she has founded, The Carma Foundation; a nonprofit dedicated to addressing the needs of women and children in her native homeland Haiti, the Caribbean, and the inner cities of the United States.

Her own personal successes as an artist have enabled her to tie in other entertainment personalities to lend their celebrity to contribute. Melky has served as executive producer to a Care for Haiti music project she produced featuring many of today's international artist like Angelique Kidjo, Sean Paul, KRS1, Talib Kweli and many more. One hundred percent of the proceeds of this album went to the CARE organization.
