

J Bookwalter Winery Launches J. Mclarnin Luxury Cuvee Red Wine

Tacoma, Jun 20, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - They say wine gets better with age and sipping fine old wine is nothing but luxury. Washington's heritage brand J Bookwalter Winery has been satisfying the savor of wine lovers for decades and this is not the first time that they have launched something classic. However, this time luxury has met vintage and it has been named McLarinin premium Washington red wine. John Bookwalter, the grandson of Jimmy Mclarin and the present owner of John Bookwalter is maintaining the standard of the heritage Bookwalter Family. The season has come for the club members of J. Bookwalter Winery to taste the finest wine of the season stored in handcrafted bottles and packaged in a custom 3-bottle case that hails from some of DC's oldest vineyards.

It's a wine 96 years in the making. Jimmy "Baby Face" McLarnin (my grandfather/mom's dad) won his first Welterweight title of the world on May 29th, 1933. In celebration of his "Hollywood" type life and first championship, we have created the Wineries first 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Syrah blend. Frankly, one of the finest red wines we have produced since we began making wines in 1983." Said proprietor John Bookwalter

Available at $450, each bottle of this quintessential wine is labeled with a replica monochrome photograph of "Champ" McLarin heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis at training camp This rare 3 bottle package retails for \$450.
