Get to know Orthopedic Surgeon Dr. Rufus W. Gore, who serves patients in Rancho Mirage, California.

New York City, Jun 29, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr Gore is a board-certified orthopaedic surgeon who specializes in general orthopaedics with an emphasis on total joint replacement. “I’m a doctor first. I want patients to see that I genuinely care about them. I take the time to help them understand their injury and the treatment necessary to get them back to their normal activities as soon as possible” as stated by Dr Gore.

Dr Gore is currently serving patients at Rancho Orthopedics - Conformis in Rancho Mirage, California. Conformis is a medical technology company that uses proprietary iFit Image-to-Implant technology platform to develop, manufacture, and sell joint replacement implants that are individually sized and shaped.

Dr Gore earned his medical degree from Georgetown University School of Medicine in Washington D.C. He served his internship at the National Naval Medical Center and his residency at the Naval Hospital - both of which are located in Bethesda, Maryland. Following his residency, he spent 12 years in the U.S. Navy holding key positions such as Department Head of the U.S. Naval Hospital in Naples, Italy and Head of Orthopedic Surgery at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Long Beach, California.

Dr Gore has held several faculty appointments, including Program Director and Director of Orthopedics Training at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Long Beach, as well as Clinical Instructor of Surgery at The Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences F. Edward Hébert School of Medicine. He has also held several medical staff leadership positions, including Chief of Surgery and Chief of Staff.

Dr Gore is a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. He is also a member of the American Medical Association, the California Medical Association, the California Orthopaedic Association, the Society of Military Orthopaedic Surgeons, and the Riverside County Medical Association.

Dr Gore is board-certified in orthopaedic surgery by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery (ABOS). Founded in 1934 as a private, voluntary, nonprofit, autonomous organization, the ABOS exists to serve the best interest of the public and the medical profession by establishing educational standards for orthopaedic residents and by evaluating the initial and continuing qualifications and competence of orthopaedic surgeons.

Orthopaedic surgery or orthopaedics is the branch of surgery that deals with conditions involving the musculoskeletal system. An orthopaedic surgeon offers care to patients suffering from problems associated with the joints, bones, muscles, tendons, and ligaments. They perform surgeries to address trauma, injuries, tumours, infections, and other conditions that require surgical intervention. “Orthopedics is great medicine. It is very satisfying to work. I like the challenge of the mechanics' aspect, but the best is helping people” as stated by Dr Gore.
