Get to know Ophthalmologist Dr. Russell E. Swann, who serves patients in Waco, Texas.

New York City, Jun 27, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Swann has served as the Medical Director and Senior Ophthalmologist at Brazos Eye Surgery in Waco, Texas for the past 37 years. The practice has earned a reputation of excellence by providing their patients with advanced and cutting edge technology, along with a knowledgeable and professional staff. They provide care for cataracts, cornea and external ocular diseases, astigmatism, diabetic eye care, glaucoma, macular degeneration, dry eyes, autoimmune diseases, and optical dispensary.

Dr. Swann established his practice in general ophthalmology with a vision and passion to bring state-of-the-art ophthalmic surgical technology to Central Texas. His reputation for excellent surgical outcomes earned him area wide recognition. A battle with cancer forced him to discontinue his surgical career in 2009; however, he continues to meet the needs of his general ophthalmology, diabetic, and glaucoma patients.

Dr. Swann is board-certified in ophthalmology by the American Board of Ophthalmology (ABO). The ABO is an independent, nonprofit organization responsible for certifying ophthalmologists in the United States.

Dr. Swann is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons (FACS). FACS is a post-nominal title used to indicate that the surgeon's education and training, professional qualifications, surgical competence, and ethical conduct have passed a rigorous evaluation, and have been found to be consistent with the high standards established and demanded by the said college.

Dr. Swann earned his medical degree from Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans, Louisiana in 1975. He then went on to complete his surgical internship at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, Texas in 1976, followed by his residency in ophthalmology at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana in 1981. Dr. Swann also holds a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science in biochemistry.

Dr. Swann is on the Board of Directors of the Dallas Academy of Ophthalmology. He is also a member of the American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery. Dr. Swann has received the coveted Best Doctor in America Achievement Award each year since 2001.

Ophthalmology is a branch of medicine and surgery, which deals with the diagnosis and treatment of eye disorders. Ophthalmologists are experts in the diseases, functions and anatomy of the eye. They may provide routine care such as vision testing, as well as prescribe and fit eyeglasses or contact lenses. However, ophthalmologists are also surgeons. They repair traumatic injuries to the eye and perform cataract and corneal surgery. Dr. Swann specializes in comprehensive eye exams, LASIK, and the treatment of eye diseases such as glaucoma.
