New York City, Jun 27, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dominating the music industry for a long time, the artist Matthew Schultz is a force to be reckoned with in the music world. This multi-talented individual started playing in the band of Chris Daughtry's during the beginning of his career. In the entertainment industry, the artist has been a popular name as he appeared in many popular films including the reality shown Real Housewives of New Jersey. However, it wasn't until 2018 last year did Matthew receive the recognition he deserved as an artist, which he finally succeeded in achieving with the help of his two back to back releases 'Promise For Keeps' and 'Promise For Keeps - Electric Bodega Remix'.

Among his enormous collection, another single that received the worldwide appreciation of the music lover is 'Somewhere Far'. Since last August this creation of Matthew Schultz has accumulated a total of 7 million streams in addition to being picked up by Spotify's biggest playlist. Since the artist takes his influences from multiple genres such as EDM, Pop, Electronic, Electro-pop, 'Somewhere Far' can easily be described as a brilliant fusion.

Matthew Schultz latest release 'Go', however, accrues the chilling vibes of the track 'Somewhere Far'. Starting with intoxicating synchs that sets a mellow mood, the artist's distinctive lead vocals soon take centre stage. The track gradually builds up and the professionalism shown by Matthew shows his artistic creativity which stands incomparable. 'Promise For Keeps' and 'Promise For Keeps - Electric Bodega Remix', 'Somewhere Far' and 'Go' are truly unique in nature.
