

Musician & Hunk-O-Mania Performer Leon Budrow films TV Series Scene on the hit show "Younger"

Starring TV Star Hilary Duff

Pottstown, Jul 7, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Take it back to 2001. Do you remember those days? Back when shows like "Lizzie McGuire" ruled the Disney Channel? Of course, you do. Who could forget the iconic Lizzie McGuire show that became a generational hit for so many Disney Channel fans across the world.

Fast forward to 2019. "Lizzie McGuire" star Hilary Duff is all grown up, having taken her talents to the hit TV Show "Younger." In its sixth season, the show continues to be a hit, while Hilary continues to steal the hearts of her fans.

Including rising Hip-Hop | Pop Artist and Hunk-O-Mania performer, Leon Budrow.

On what seemed to be just a regular day like any other, checking through work emails and social media notifications, Hip-Hop | Pop Artist and Hunk-O-Mania performer Leon Budrow received a casting opportunity in his Hunk-O-Mania team group chat.

"I really had no idea what the casting was for at the time, all I knew was they needed male dancers for some sort of TV series" Leon Budrow recalled of the notification. "I was excited and immediately submitted myself for the role. I was really happy to hear back that I was selected."

"I had no idea that I'd be working with Hilary Duff on the set of "Younger" until I got there."

Styled in a quirky silver hat and underwear, Leon Budrow body rolled take after take for what will be a hilarious scene in this current season.

"The scene we shot is so funny. I don't want to spoil anything, but you have to watch the show. You're going to laugh trust me." - Leon Budrow states, encouraging viewers to tune in to the show.

"They kind of make fun of us (male dancers) a little bit in the scene. It's really funny." - Leon Budrow states as he vaguely describes the scene.

"Working with Hilary Duff was really cool. It was so nice to meet her, having been a fan of her growing up. She was so sweet and the entire cast and staff were incredibly friendly. It was a great experience for sure." - Leon Budrow recalls of his time on set.
