

Allied Universal Selected as a Learning! 100 Award Winner by Elearning! Magazine

Santa Ana, Aug 28, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Allied Universal, a leading security and facility services company in North America, has been named a Learning! 100 top learning organization for 2019 by the Elearning! Media Group. Published by Elearning! Magazine, the Learning! 100 Award recognizes the top 100 global organizations across the public and private sectors for their best-in-class learning and development programs that drive organizational performance.

“This recognition validates Allied Universal’s reputation for developing great learning programs that are collaborative and innovative which enable the delivery of high-quality security services to our clients every day,” said Brent O’Bryan, Vice President, Training & Organizational Effectiveness at Allied Universal. “We are proud to be recognized as one of the Learning! 100. Our ability to train and develop our security professionals is pivotal to serving the evolving needs of our industry.”

Learning! 100 submissions are evaluated on three sets of criteria: Darden School’s Learning Culture Index, Collaborative Strategies’ Innovation & Collaboration Ratings, and overall organizational performance. Every application is reviewed using the same criteria, and scores are totaled and ranked for the Learning! 100.
