Los Angeles, Sep 22, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Nocturnal Abstract Makes Swimwear A Work of Art!

Nocturnal Abstract (www.NocturnalAbstract.com) is known for their amazing sneakers and skateboards all based on the original abstract artwork of urban artist "Nocturnal Abstract aka John Shashaty". Shashaty took ink to paper and created a series of abstract drawings with hidden symbolism about life events. After selling the art and getting a following the series of abstract stories became a NYC fashion concept.

At the request of NYC art lovers, the designs were transferred from paper to a unique line of skate gear, sneakers and skateboards. The new brand has received significant recognition after launching the trendy sneaker and skate line.

Nocturnal Abstract has now launched a women's swimwear line. We recently had a chance to see some gorgeous models wearing the abstract artwork. As expected there was a buzz and a whole lot of conversation about the designs and the stories they tell.

Shashaty continues to keep the stories within the artworks private saying "the true story behind the work is meant to be hidden. When an art lover buys an original piece I give them the narrative which makes their purchase a true art experience."

Jennifer Perez, one of the models sporting a Nocturnal Abstract bikini said, "I was able to view the art behind my new bikini. I watched the geometric shapes merge together almost in a hypnotic state and swore I saw various things. Shashaty explained a small piece of the hidden story and I was like wow!, this is cool stuff."

Visit the Nocturnal Abstract website at NocturnalAbstract.com to view their skateboards, sneakers, travel bags and bikinis! They won't disappoint!
