Pittsburg, Sep 11, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The autobiography, From Silence to Secrecy: A Memoir, describes how author Martha E. Leiker, not only made her longtime dream of serving the people of Africa become a reality but also accomplished much more beyond her religious service.

The book starts off with Martha's beginnings, from her birth in 1940 to her training as a nun, paving the way to her missionary work in Africa for eight years. It then narrates why Martha was always drawn to Africa and why she believes God called her to serve the African people. This fulfillment didn't stop her to take a complete turn of her career.

Well-written and expertly crafted, From Silence to Secrecy illustrates how anyone can fulfill their dreams and live a life full of rich experiences. Martha's story is a testament to her faith, hope, and strength.

Martha's work will be exhibited at the Manila International Book Fair to be held at the SMX Convention Center Manila, Mall of Asia in Pasay City, Philippines, this coming Sept. 11-15, 2019 from 10am-8pm at the Authors Press booth no. 2-35.
