

Teacher's Christmas Story Tells Tale of Time and Universal Teachings

Children's book clocks in lessons on perseverance that stands the test of time

Pittsburg, Sep 11, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Veteran educator and children's books author, Ryke Leigh Douglas, tells the story of a clockmaker in the Christmas tale Tock A Tick. At the center of this charming wordplay of time is Gustav. Set in the Christmas season, the book fleshes out the importance of determination and hardwork when it comes to achieving goals. What lies behind the spine of the playful and yet heart-warming narrative is the universal value of perseverance.

Readers are in for a treat as Gustav pursues his goals and puts in the work—not allowing any obstacle to discourage him. The universal truth of “nothing is impossible” vibrates in every page which both children and adults can learn from. The book is a bestseller among parents and grandparents who want to teach valuable lessons to children at home.

Douglas devotes her time and channels her creativity in helping kids discover the magic of reading books. Her stories are meant to instill positive attitudes among learners. Since her years of teaching in academic institutions, she continues to remain true to her passion for educating young minds. When she’s not writing, she visits learning centers and public libraries to share stories she knows by heart.

Ryke’s work will be exhibited at the Manila International Book Fair to be held at the SMX Convention Center Manila, Mall of Asia in Pasay City, Philippines, this coming Sept. 11- 15, 2019 from 10am-8pm at the Authors Press booth no. 2-35.
