

Artist cum producer CG Dillon is gearing up to rock the music charts with his album 'Mix Emotions'

Ontario, Oct 18, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The talented Tobago born artist, CG Dillon, is all set to thrill audiences with his elevated musicianship on this, his debut album. Mix Emotions - album release is set to launch on Saturday, November 2, 2019.

This musician, songwriter, performer, and producer has mastered the art of crafting music across numerous genres of Soca, Gospel, R&B, Soul, Rap, Hip Hop, Rock, and many more. This versatile and talented artist is very much inspired by none other than the King of Pop, Michael Jackson.

Following the release of several singles over the years, fans have been eagerly waiting for his next release and here he delivers with his first complete music collection. The architects of this collection involve gifted artists like Peeler, Afrikonda, Evan Simms and Juno nominated recording artist Alysha Brilla. Recorded under Eudemonic Records, the 50 minutes plus musical extravaganza spans from human sentiments of fun, love, and heartbreak to partying, and also subjects like poverty and environmental concerns.

CG possesses a unique style of delivering music, which has made him a favorite among music fans. His vocal presence has a character that enhances his style of production. With so many hits under his sleeve, fans will certainly be in for a musical treat on the day of the album release.

Media Contact

CG Dillon

cgdillon69@gmail.com

519-732-9239

Source : Eudemonic Records

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/artist-cum-producer-cg-dillon-is-gearing-up-to-rock-the-music-charts-with-his-album-mix-emotions-1647176442976105>