Chattanooga, Oct 22, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The new release, "Beyond Messy Relationships," published by Morgan James and written by Judy K. Herman has been nominated for a 2019 Author Academy Award. This is an honor bestowed for literary merit and publishing excellence in the writing and publishing industry.

Herman's book is up for an award in the Memoir category giving readers psychological and spiritual insights from her messy relationships including divorce, remarriage, abortion, and bipolar disorder.

"Hundreds of books from authors throughout the world are up for an Author Academy Award," said Kary Oberbrunner, founder of Author Academy Awards. "Our goal is to help further connect this global community of authors, maintain excellence and integrity of the book publishing industry, and raise awareness that the stories being told and the authors who write them are worth our attention."

Authors of all kinds are being considered for the award in one of 16 categories. Entries are being reviewed and evaluated on popular vote, social contribution, and overall presentation (cover, content, flow, and originality) by the Academy's voting membership comprised of best-selling authors, literary agents and industry leaders.

If interested in supporting Herman and participating in the popular vote portion of the award evaluation, go to <https://authoracademyawards.com/finalists2019/> and scroll to the "Ready to Vote?" section. Click through to the Memoir category, then find and click on "Beyond Messy Relationships."
