

A Tale of Longing and Mystery Shines Through in New Novel

Enthralling drama features an orphan girl's swirling journey of discovery

ORPHAN
BRIDE

K. A. Ray

Pittsburg, Nov 22, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - This fascinating drama from Kenneth Alden Ray centers on Emma, who believes she is an illegitimate orphan. However, a letter from a solicitor in London arrives and turns her world upside down. This pushes the story forward as the letter directs her to go to London to receive her history that turns out to be a dream beyond her wildest fantasies. With a chance encounter in a park, while she was feeding pigeons and pondering what to do now that she had arrived in London, she meets two strangers who befriended her immediately and takes her on an adventure that involves money, unknown family, and an inheritance that made her an heiress. Unknown to her, these strangers also had their own issues to resolve—the murder of their parents and their older brother and the theft of a great deal of the proceeds from mills owned by the family.

When Emma found the clue that solved the mystery as to the guilty parties, her reward was a kiss, which opened both her and our hero's eyes and heart to the romance they had both been trying to hide. Kenneth's Orphan Bride will take readers to a whirling ride as these beloved, intriguing characters traverse the unlimited joy of new love and the happiness it brings.

Kenneth's work will be exhibited at the Miami Book Fair Street Fair weekend, to be held at Miami Dade College (Wolfson Campus) in downtown Miami this coming November 22-24 at the Authors Press booth. You may meet the author personally at our booth starting at 10:30 a.m. on the 22nd of November where he will be signing copies, with free giveaways.
