

Branwell Black's 1st single 'What You Want'!

The edgy Popstar goes solo and releases fresh new sound.

London, Nov 8, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - This is Branwell Black, a singer & dancer born in Oxford who grew up in France performing with his brother Morgan Black as a band often referred to as 'Theatre Rock'. Now living in London he's rebranding in a big way and going solo. He's starting to incorporate his experience with dance into his new shows and with his first single 'What You Want', he can do just that!

The song 'What You Want' is a Pop/Rock banger with a modern EDM edge to it! Written by Branwell and produced by his friend Kolos Simon - he is on the rise. To quote him - 'The song itself is about battling with something or someone that is toxic for you and in finally realizing this, you tell them they can have your body but they'll never have what makes you unique - your soul - your throne.'

Stream the song here: <https://distrokid.com/hyperfollow/branwellblack/what-you-want>

Connect with Branwell, here: <https://www.instagram.com/brantanzen/>

Check him out on Youtube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9uhsM95Gpg8>

Media Contact

Branwell Black

blackbran0@gmail.com

Source : Branwell Black

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/branwell-blacks-1st-single-what-you-want-1649613561238718>