

Haitian-American beauty takes music industry by storm with Afrobeat inspired single!

Mickael aka Mickael Music releases new single assisted by Skales, Young D & Triplets Ghetto Kids to tremendous success.

New York City, Nov 20, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Born in Brooklyn to Haitian Parents singer, songwriter and philanthropist Mickael drops her latest single “Fever” featuring Skales Young D & Triplets Ghetto Kids

Mickael has always felt attached to her true home; Haiti. "My flesh was born in Brooklyn, but my soul never left Haiti," states Mickael. "I'm an island girl at heart with Haitian pride like no other." Screaming WHERE BROOKLYN At!!!!!!

Once her native land of Haiti was ravaged by a massive earthquake and she decided to focus her talents on helping her people. Mickael is not only a talented musician but she is also a music industry veteran serving as an A&R, brand strategist and songwriter for several Grammy award-winning artists all before the age of 21. Despite her, behind the scenes talent, Mickael always yearned to be in front of the camera sharing her musical message to the world. Beyond music, her passion is philanthropy as she has helped to found and developed numerous charitable organizations aimed at helping the disenfranchised and poverty-stricken people in Haiti.

In 2016 Mickael was featured on the smash hit "Viens Avec Moi" by Haitian star Wanito the single thrust Mickael into a different light as the single generated nearly 1 million collective streams across all platforms.

2017 Mickael releases her creole hit "Bel Famm" which has become a smash hit in Haiti garnering heavy radio play and Playing on Tv throughout the whole Caribbean including Trace Tv. For her follow up she employed the assistance of Afrobeat superstars Skales & The Ghetto Kids with the smash "Fever".

Earlier this month Mickael dropped the official video for "Fever" and has already been viewed over 30,000 times on YouTube. The video displays remarkable choreography and vibrant visuals and will surely further the Mickael's momentum. Fast becoming a viral smash, fans of Mickael from Haiti, to Jamaica to the united states have all participated in the "Fever" dance challenge garnering nearly 1 million views collectively. The song itself has nearly 25,000 streams collectively since its mid-October release garnering the attention of deejays and playlists alike, a remarkable feat in this day and age for any artist especially an independent artist with no major resources to speak of.

Mickael is a top talent and already an influential and inspiring figure who will take the world by storm. Be on the lookout for the official support tour in the United States and Caribbean region.

Soundcloud link:

<https://soundcloud.com/mickaelartist/fever>

Instagram: @MickaelArtist

Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/Mickaelartist/>

Twitter: @MickaelArtist

Media Contact

L&B Consultation

info@LBConsultation.com

Source : L&B Consultation

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/haitian-american-beauty-takes-music-industry-by-storm-with-afrobeat-inspired-single-1650750491031147>