

Louise Meanwell Has Connections with Many Lending Sources

New York City, Nov 1, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Louise Meanwell is a financial broker in New York who not only helps her client to borrow, but also provides advice for delinquent loan accounts. She has connections with many lending sources. She knows where to avail of a loan that is streamlined to allow the most benefits, given your financial capacity.

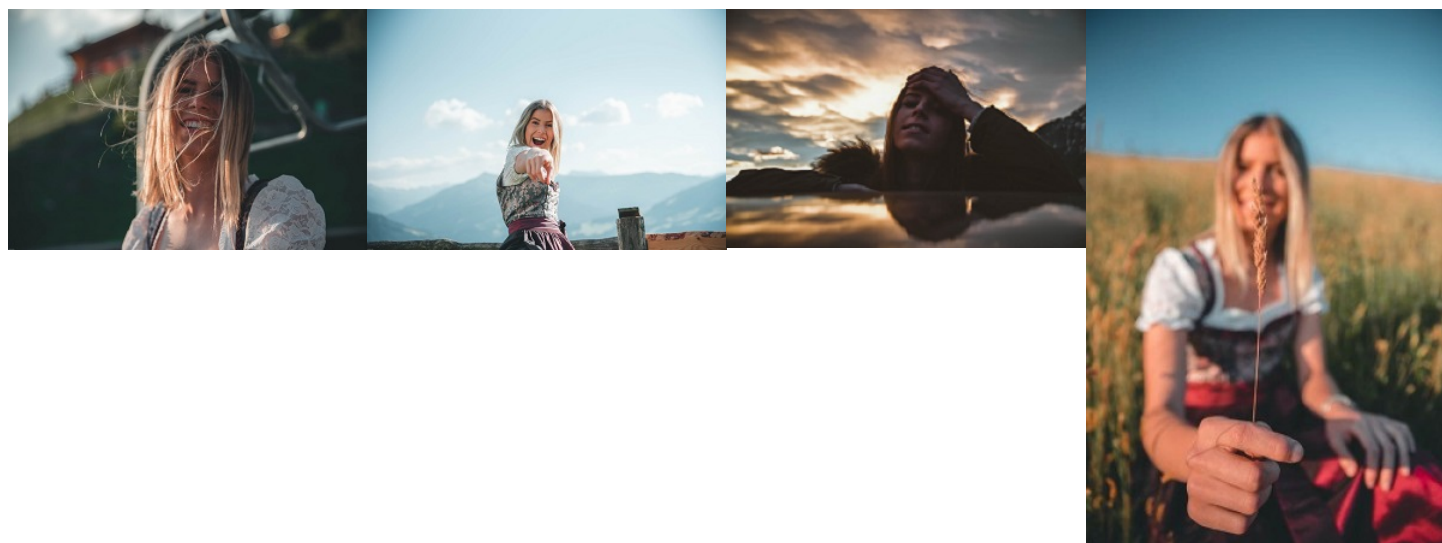

Her duties do not end after the loan has been granted but she also helps the clients in facilitating payment. She takes it upon herself to advise the client about how he can best manage his business in order to avoid difficulties concerning his loan. If problems do crop up, Louise Meanwell also intervenes with the lender for restructuring or some other alternative way to adjust the terms of a defaulted loan. She keeps the interests of both the lender and the borrower in mind and at heart while making a decision.

She acts as an intermediary between the parties involved in the transaction and in a way, acts more than just a middleman. She also offers advice to people who want to borrow money.
