Get to know Psychiatrist Dr. Rabinder Singh Bhatti, who serves patients in Florida.

New York City, Nov 4, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Bhatti is a board-certified psychiatrist, who practices interventional pain medicine at PRC Alliance Pain Relief Centers in DeLand and Orange City, Florida. He is available to treat patients experiencing either subacute, chronic, or intractable pain through osteopathic approaches, independently or in conjunction with other treatment modalities. Moreover, he believes in providing patients with minimally invasive treatment options and working with each patient individually to identify and treat the source of their pain.

PRC Alliance Pain Relief Centers is a family of pain management specialists who are dedicated to relieving pain through exceptional and compassionate care. Their mission is to relieve patients of pain and provide outstanding medical care and comfort through a conservative, yet comprehensive approach to pain management.

After earning his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine from Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine (NSUCOM), Dr. Bhatti went on to complete an internship in osteopathic medicine at Nassau University Medical Center. Thereafter, he completed a residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Rusk Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, followed by a fellowship in interventional pain management at The Deuk Spine Institute and a pain medicine fellowship at NSUCOM-Larkin Community Hospital.

In order to stay up to date in his field, he remains a member of the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, the American Osteopathic College of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, and the American Osteopathic Association.

Additionally, he is board-certified in both pain medicine and physical medicine and rehabilitation by the American Osteopathic Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. The American Osteopathic Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the treatment of patients with physical impairments or disabilities.

Physical medicine and rehabilitation, also known as physiatry and physiatrics, is a branch of medicine that aims to enhance and restore functional ability and quality of life to those with physical impairments or disabilities. Physiatrists treat a wide variety of medical conditions affecting the brain, spinal cord, nerves, bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, and tendons.
