

San Diego Vocalist / Alexis Joi Releases New Jazz Album “More Than Love,” Launches New Web Site

Vocalist begins a journey through the artistic stylings of Jazz. Joi delivers stellar renditions of a few Jazz standards and creates new music as well.

San Diego, Nov 2, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Alexis Joi, one of San Diego's most polished voices, has been wowing audiences around the country for years with an awe-inspiring range. Often compared to the likes of Whitney Houston, and Barbara Streisand, the singer releases her new website at <http://www.alexisjoi.com>, Joi also has a scheduled release of her debut Jazz project titled “More Than Love” on November 7, 2019. Touring is also on the horizon. The soul/jazz/inspirational songstress; this December, will return to Japan promoting her new Jazz project with (The Skipper) Henry Franklin Trio.

What sets this indie Artist apart from the rest is the vocal dynamic she brings through her artistry. Joi hopes to reach her audiences with the message of love found in Jazz music.

“To join the ranks of ambassadors of peace by sharing via vocal performance the timeless genre of jazz music is a treasured privilege and joy to me. I love the ability to improvise in music--to let my soul lead--and jazz allows for that perfectly.” According to the singer, sharing a real-life moment with her audience is her most favorite experience as a performer.

About Alexis Joi

An American singer, songwriter, and vocal coach. Although considered primarily a performer of jazz, traditional gospel, and contemporary Christian music. Joi avoids conforming to a single musical genre, preferring instead to be recognized as possessing vocal prowess, timeless musicianship, and an uplifting message for the masses. The Gary, Indiana, native has recorded three albums and has toured internationally as part of a successful gospel act; she gained national recognition in 2018 when her cover recording of the song "The River" aired on an episode of the hit CBS-TV comedy-drama God Friended Me. Joi's contralto voice has been called a rare gift, with vocal stylings said to resemble those of Whitney Houston, Sarah Vaughn, and Mahaila Jackson with an inspirational dynamics cultivated through her gospel-music roots. Hailing from Gary, IN. by way of Philadelphia, PA. Alexis Joi embarked on a musical journey that brought her before audiences across the country at prestigious venues like the Kimmel Center, The Staple Centre, The Celebrity Centre, and The Apollo Theater to name a few. She cultivated her musical foundation at the Emerson School for the Visual and Performing Arts and continued in choral ensemble while attending Indiana University.

With an unforgettable presence and spine-tingling voice that soars to the heights of many legendary songstresses before her, this musical prodigy is sure to inspire listeners with her aforementioned project.

For further information or assets, contact info@alexisjoi.com or call (760) 765-5517.

Media Contact

Alexis Joi Music

info@alexisjoi.com

7607655517

Source : Alexis Joi Music

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/san-diego-vocalist-alexis-joi-releases-new-jazz-album-more-than-love-launches-new-web-site-1649050108792177>