

Canadian Equity Startup BRED to Present at Prestigious Colliers Proptech Summit in Toronto

Toronto, Dec 3, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - BRED, a private equity company will be a featured presenter at the Proptech Summit's Demo Day held on Wednesday, December 4 at the Metro Toronto Convention

Centre, to over 1,000 real estate and investment professionals locally and thousands more worldwide via livestream.

BRED's presentation at Demo Day is the culminating event of the prestigious Colliers PropTech Accelerator Powered by Techstars. The intensive 12-week accelerator connects an exclusive group of innovative, ready-to-scale start-ups with a network of over 120 experienced mentors.

"This is a special moment for us to put BRED on the worldwide stage," said co-founder and co-CEO Dr. Walter Heidary, who will do the Demo Day pitch. "We are proud to showcase our ground-breaking platform that will provide investors with the opportunity and access to buy digital shares in top-quality, Grade-A, North American institutional real estate."

The accelerator is highly competitive, attracting hundreds of applicants worldwide. BRED, with its solution to add liquidity to North American real estate through blockchain and tokenization technology, was one of just 10 companies selected for this cohort.

BRED Founders Dr. Walter Heidary, co-CEO, Jag Basrai, President and co-CEO, and Kobhi Nanthakumaran, CTO are available for media interviews.
