

Chicago Legends live FOREVER!!

"No Lackin" artist and Chicago Legend releases "Bad Habit"

Chicago, Jan 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Even after his passing earlier this year, the Black RockStar and Chicago Legend, Lil Mister, continues to break the airwaves in his city and around the world.

Lil Mister (born Antwon Fields) who sometimes goes by the moniker Montana, is a rapper from Chicago. He is a member of the Gangster Disciples gang from the set known as Wuga World.

Lil Mister 's music is often classified in the Drill subgenre of Hip Hop, which is heavily influenced by the harsh street life in Chicago. 'No Lackin' by Lil Mister featuring P. Rico is probably his biggest hit to date.

Another one of Lil Mister's biggest hit is "Take Off" featuring Diesel, and "Lil Friend"; those videos have received millions of views on youtube.

Lil Mister was fatally shot on March 15, 2019, but his spirit is still alive in his city, Chicago, and in the hearts of his fans all around the world.

Media Contact

Make That Mill Entertainment

makethatmillentertainment@gmail.com

Source : Make That Mill Entertainment

See on IssueWire