

New Single Release dropped for Rapper DC Flyz entitled "Test Me", featuring American Battle Rapper K-Shine,

Los Angeles, Dec 17, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - On Thursday, December 12th, 2019 there was a massive release party for Rapper DC Flyz's new single "Test Me", featuring 66 rap battles cataloged American battle rapper K-Shine. The much-anticipated single "Test Me" was released on December 13th through Apple Music, YouTube, Spotify, Amazon Music, Pandora, Google, Napster, Tidal, and Deezer distribution. The event hosted the red carpet to interview of Rapper DC Flyz about his current projects as well as additional talent that will come to support him.

DC Flyz's inspiration and production for his current single "Test Me" was inspired by struggles and challenges one faces in life which pushed his music to a different level. DC Flyz song wrote for this current project as well as his past releases. DC Flyz has been a force in the music industry in the rap/ hip hop genre with ample amount of accomplishments under his belt, charted Billboard charts for rap single entitled "Gotta Grind" (2009), "From Da South" (2009), "Flexin" (2012) and "Double Up", (2013) a widely successful mixtape and the list goes on.

DC Flyz is also known for his grit and grind as a music artist and giving out massive hits like "IDK Why" in the summer of 2018. He decided to go solo for his newest ventures and feature rap singles with his own label "CrankemUp Nation" which he released in 2017. In his music, you can see elements of his Washington D.C. roots where he first began his music career and learned to produce, song write and rap. and the catalyst of his music career.

When asked about his passion to produce music, the rap star stated, "All of my music depicts events from real-life stories and situations I deal with and dealt with, trying to get to my goal in life. No matter if its family issues, finding a way to feed my children. It was a mixture of the feelings and emotions I had at that moment when I picked up my pen and my pad. Its what flowed and it all came out on to some dope beats and into now my music is my project."
