Get to know Nurse Practitioner, Shana Fleming, who serves patients in Stuart, Florida.

New York City, Dec 19, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Specializing in family medicine, Shana is a certified nurse practitioner at Conviva Care Center Stuart in Florida.

With locations throughout the United States, Conviva Care Centers represent a commitment to the highest standards of medical care, starting with primary care and extended through where each patient's health needs take them. They are proudly served by the distinguished physicians of Conviva Physician Group that was formed to ensure that the best practices and the highest clinical standards are upheld for patients who wish to reach their fullest potential.

In 2000, Shana earned her nursing degree from Indian River State College in Fort Pierce, Florida. Thereafter, she went on to obtain her Master of Science in Nursing degree from Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida.

In order to stay up to date in her field, she remains a member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) and the Florida Association of Nurse Practitioners (FLANP). The AANP has the information, tools, and resources, nurse practitioners need. Shaped by the shared vision and challenges of their growing nurse practitioners community, AANP aims to empower all nurse practitioners to advance quality health care through practice, education, advocacy, research, and leadership. FLANP is a pro-active group of Nurse Practitioners and health care advocates who are working to improve access to health care for Florida's citizens.

A certified nurse practitioner is an advanced practice registered nurse and a type of mid-level nurse practitioner. They are trained to assess patient needs, order and interpret diagnostic and laboratory tests, diagnose illness and disease, prescribe medication, and formulate treatment plans.
